RACE TRACK, GRAVESEND, May 30.—To those who have seen holiday crowds at race tracks in other seasons, it did not appear to-day as if the attendance was much below the average for Decoration Day. There was a crowd, fully as large as on any other day, and on that occasion the attendance was estimated at 25,000.

The weather was perfect and the track fast. Also there was a very attractive programme, so that all conditions seemed to favor the keenest sort of sport. The stake features were the Parkway Handicap, at a mile and a six-teenths with a cracking good field, and the Hudson Stakes, for two-year-olds, also with a splendid field.

Big days seem productive of runaway accidents and this afternoon was no exception. A horse attached to a rumbust was turning into Kings Highway entrance about 1.30 o'clock. The wheeling of an automobile horn alarmed the animal, and he plunged through the gate at a mad gallop. Just at the same moment Richard Hyde, one of the Brooklyn Jockey Club's heaviest stockholders, and part owner of Hyde & Behman's Theatre in Brooklyn, was passing through the entrance. Mr.
Hyde was knocked down and run over.
When picked up it was found that his shoulder and arm had been dislocated.
He was attended by the track physician, Dr. Hoxie, and later sent home in an auto.

POLO GROUNDS, NEW YORK, May 30.—Over 8,000 people had flocked into the Polo Grounds an hour before the afternoon game to-day and the early returns pointed to an attendance of 20,000 when the rural precincts had been heard from.

Secretary Murphy attributed this attendance not only to a desire to see Brooklyn shoved a foot further in her grave, but as an attestation to the character of John McGraw, whose honor is now at stake. Every other male and every female stopped long enough to affix their respective signatures to the petition for judicial clemency for poor little John McGraw. The list of petitioners is now long enough to keep the honorable Board of Directors reading until the statute of limitations runs out.

A crowd also brought huge bunches of flowers to strew on the grave of Brooklyn, for, verily, on this day of the peanut vendor had looked upon the field of battle. The fight, however, proved disastrous for the Giants, who were knocked out of the game. The team was sent to fight in his place and Ned Hanlon announced that victory was now a cinch. So saying he showed his little team out to face the Giants and mortal combat had begun.

First Inning.
Sheppard, a little too slow to beat Dahlen's pretty throw to first, and Lumley could do no better than shoot a grounder out to Devlin. Batoh lined out to first. NO RUNS.

Second Inning.
Owens hit a long drive to centre, but Dahlen got under and Lewis was easier still for Dahlen. Wilkes jumped in the air and got Dahlen's cream getting out to first in time to retire the side.
NO RUNS.

Third Inning.
Gessler was patient and waited, but was forced at second on Bergin's hot shot to Dahlen. Stricklett took the count and set down. Gessler thereupon sneaked to second, aided by Brennan's bad throw, but did not on Sheppard's
out to first. NO RUNS.

HILTON, N. J., May 30.—The historic cycle derby over the Irvington-Milburn course was run to-day. The weather was perfect and 20,000 times the course. Ninety-eight riders lined up for the start. Many of these have taken part in previous events, among them being E. J. McCollum, of New York, the winner of last year's. The record of one hour and eight minutes and twelve seconds is held by Monte Scott, of Providence. It was made on May 3, 1904.

"Happy Days" Eisman, who has occasionally acted as referee at all previous races since the birth of the cycle derby in 1889, acted in the same capacity this year. It was announced just previous to the race that in the event of one man winning both the first time and
